Acknowledgements

I would first like to thank God in heaven for providing me with the opportunity to serve my family and the world with the gifts placed inside of me. I'm honored to be blessed with the gifts of life and love to truly make an impact by sharing an authentic and genuine love, adding undeniable value to others that results in true transformation.

I would like to thank and honor my awesome and amazing husband for always supporting me and loving me in the way that only he can. Thank you for being patient, kind, caring, understanding, inspiring and just an overall wonderful husband. Thank you for all you do and sacrifice for me and for our family. I get excited when I think about just how much of an unbelievable gift you are; words can't express it. I love you!

I would like to thank our incredible children. To my daughter, I'm so honored and grateful that God chose me to be your mommy. You are such a gift to our family and to this world! Your personality radiates like the sun, and you light up our world just with your presence alone. To our sons, you all are such gifts and truly are taking the world by storm! All three of you teach me how to become a better mother every day, and for that, I'm grateful. I look forward to seeing greater success! I love you all!

To my mother, thank you for showing me what true resilience looks like. I'm blessed to be your daughter. It's been an honor to watch the blessings from God unfold in your life. Success looks good on you! I will always accept your declaration that God is soooooo faithful as I truly have experienced that in my own life. I love you!

To my three parents, thank you for raising me to be the woman I have grown into today. Thank you for all the sacrifices, lessons learned, good times, and wisdom you have shared with me over the years. Yes, I was both watching and listening! Among other things, you have taught me to work hard, persevere, treat people right, look at the good, and always acknowledge God in everything I do. I love you all!

To my siblings, thank you for allowing me to be the big sister that only I can be. You three are some of the sharpest and most intelligent young adults that I know, and I'm honored to be your sister. I love you all!

To my host of extended family, grandparents (deceased), pastors, spiritual family, friends, acquaintances, and other loved ones, I thank you for anything and everything you taught me. I am better because I have been connected to you and experienced relationships with you. I love and value you all!

Foreword

What is the Wealth Success Chamber?

The Wealth Success Chamber is the inner court of the soul and spirit, which contains the hidden keys to unlock the gateway to destiny, wealth, and success, accessed only by discovering and demonstrating the identity, purpose, and vision for your life by unlocking the gift of love that begins with you. Additionally, access to your Wealth Success Chamber provides the ability to experience a life of wealth and success holistically through identification, clarity, confidence, and inspiration to achieve goals for life and/or business success.

Who can access the Wealth Success Chamber?

It is my belief that everyone has been granted gifts and talents that God divinely has intricately placed inside the hidden and innermost layers of our spirits, but we must create the right environment for those gifts and talents to be both discovered and cultivated. I don't believe that anyone born into this world has been created without one or more gifts and talents. No one is left out! Everyone has access to his or her Wealth Success Chamber, but it must be unlocked by you with the simple choice to say yes to your success.

How does the Wealth Success Chamber enhance my life?

Every gift and talent placed inside of us was placed intentionally with a unique purpose, crafted especially for our lives. When we tap into them, they make room for us, bring us into greatness, and can, if positioned and nurtured correctly, create wealth and both uncommon and tangible success in our lives. Additionally, the Wealth Success Chamber is the catalyst that inspires confidence for aspiring entrepreneurs to take the leap into creating a business that aligns with gifts, talents, passions, and the unique God-given purpose for their lives. It also aids existing entrepreneurs, business leaders, faith leaders, and other leaders in achieving greater success in life and business.

Why haven't others discovered the Wealth Success Chamber?

The problem is that many of us do not go through our lives with an intentional pursuit to discover and cultivate our unique gifts and talents to achieve perfection. Most people simply exist, living mediocre lives and struggling to survive, failing to understand and identify who they are or where they are going, which oftentimes is nowhere fast. The other obstacles that many face that prevent access to the Wealth Success Chamber are emotional toxicity that clouds the mind, heart, and soul and creates paralysis, preventing them from achieving true success.

When is the right time to access the Wealth Success Chamber?

There is no better time to access the Wealth Success Chamber than right now!

How do I access my Wealth Success Chamber?

You can access your Wealth Success Chamber by simply doing the work to unlearn the negative paradigms that have formed your ideas, thoughts, and opinions that have limited your thinking and distorted your perception of who you are and were created to be. Next, you will need to replace those negative and false paradigms with healthy and transformational paradigms that are liberating. In this book, over the next ten days, I will walk with you to reveal the secret and help you access your Wealth Success Chamber by discovering the identity, purpose, and vision for your life.

What is the secret of the Wealth Success Chamber?

If you're like me, you're wondering what exactly the secret is. Here it is! The secret of the Wealth Success Chamber is the undeniable truth that you alone hold the key to unlock the gift of love inside you to realize the identity, purpose, and vision that permits you to experience the fulfillment of transformation, wealth, and success.

Without dismissing the false labels, lies, fears, and curses of negative self-talk, bitterness, and perpetual cycles of failure from your life, you will not be able to come to a place of honor, acceptance, and transparency that enables you to grow to success and wealth.

Bondage begins in the mind, and to become liberated from the bondage that has kept you in a place of complacency and obscurity, you must be liberated first in your mind, and then your decisions, behaviors, and environment will begin to align correctly. Unlocking the gift of love inside you allows you to love, appreciate, honor, embrace, and respect you and others around you, thereby creating an atmosphere that positions you for both wealth and success.

Now, are you ready to enter Volume One of The Secret of the Wealth Success Chamber?

Please recite the commitment pledge below aloud before moving forward.

Commitment Pledge

I, _____ (insert your name here), am determined to experience the manifestation of every hidden promise, gift, talent, vision, and dream that God intelligently placed inside me before my life began. I am certain that my life's existence was no accident and in fact has a significant purpose that is being revealed to me with an undeniable and new sense of clarity and prominence. As I move forward to unveil the innermost layers of my heart, I commit to love, respect, and honor the individual that I was, am, and will be. I am discovering the identity, purpose, and vision for my life to access my very own Wealth Success Chamber. I say to the rest and consequently best days, weeks, and years to come in my life, "Triumph, victory, fulfillment, transformation, here I come!"

Preface

Greetings to you, and welcome to what will be the most exhilarating ten days of your life! Isn't it funny how, at the mention of words like exhilarating, our thoughts can instantly make us feel exhausted? If you're thinking, I'm tired already, just take a deep breath. Release it. Breathe in deep once more. Now release it, this time more slowly. Maybe I should have welcomed you to "what can be the most rewarding ten days of your life"! Ah, there's the calming peace and excitement I was looking for!

If you're like me, you may have scanned through the pages of this book and noticed quite a few pages that are lined and otherwise blank. This was no mistake. No, you don't have the wrong copy. This book is designed to be your partner on your journey and serve as a tool to help you along the way. The blank pages are for you to express and create the design for your future life!

I strongly believe everything you invest in yourself during the next ten days will pay you dividends for the rest of your life. I also recommend that you pace yourself and truly take ten days to examine and apply the principles by exploring one day at a time during our journey.

It will be challenging to make the disciplined choice to refrain from moving ahead, but this will truly be worthwhile and more beneficial in the long run. I am a firm believer that, if you have both consciousness and life, you are equipped with the authority and ability to alter your current life course and direction to truly align with your life purpose and destiny.

If you knew you were just a few steps away from having the life you've always dreamed of or hoped for, would you allow fear or doubt to keep you from taking that first step, or would you take the first step despite fear? Let me be the first to congratulate you on annihilating fear and taking your first step! Your decision to open this book means that you are ready and have everything it takes to move forward on your journey of discovery toward identity, purpose, and vision. Step one is already complete! This is a great place to be encouraged and get a high five from the person sitting next to you. That person may not know why you're asking for a high five, but your radiant smile will be enough for him or her to accept your offer. If you're asked why, just reply, "I am excited about the gift of life and purpose!" Don't worry if there's no one else around; you have permission to high five yourself!

As we progress through the guide, it will be vitally important to establish a few ground rules. These rules are designed to keep you focused and on track and not allow you to sabotage all the progress you will be making. Remember, this is your investment in you.

1. Be open, honest, and transparent.
2. Be authentic and genuine.
3. Celebrate your journey and all successes.
4. Think outside the box.
5. Repeat as often as needed.

Please also note that the bottom of every page has a statement with a blank space for you to fill in information about you:

I love and appreciate this about who I am: _____

I love, respect, and appreciate this about who I am: _____

This is your commitment to find value in all aspects of who you are as an individual, for you! If you find this exercise challenging, please be patient, and remember to look inside your heart to truly see the beauty contained therein.

Day One: What Is My Current Perspective on My Identity, Purpose, and Vision?

Welcome to day one of your journey toward identity, purpose, and vision to access your own Wealth Success Chamber! Whether you are reading in the morning, afternoon, or evening, please accept my warm greeting to you. It is now important for us to gain a foundational alignment with our definition of identity, purpose, and vision. Identity can be defined as the combination of one’s biological makeup, experiences, environment, character, values, history, and beliefs, the total culmination of a person. The identity of an individual answers the question “Who are you?” Purpose can be defined as the overarching reason God put you on Earth and granted your life with existence. The life purpose of an individual answers the question “Why are you here?” Vision can be defined as the forward goal and expectation of what will be accomplished. The vision of an individual answers the question “What will you accomplish or achieve?”

Now that we have an aligned definition of identity, purpose, and vision, it is time to get to work! Please take a few moments and write your responses below. Whether you can quickly identify each response or it takes you some time, remember this is your personal journey, and truly, this is no sprint. This is a marathon.

Don't worry if you did not really define or articulate everything you hoped you would. In this activity, done is better than perfect." We will revisit this activity near the end of our ten-day journey to reassess and reflect. Congratulations, and thank you for challenging yourself to think beyond the day-to-day complexities of life and truly begin looking inside to reveal more of who you are.

Day One Declaration

I, _____ (insert full name here), am excited about my journey to realizing my identity, purpose, and vision by unlocking the gift of love inside me. I am excited and thankful for the gift of life. I have a vision and will fulfill my purpose by knowing my identity and setting clear goals. I commit to making time for me and for embracing the authenticity of who I am. I am moving forward to accomplish everything I ever hoped I would achieve. I am my own success story. I am accessing my Wealth Success Chamber!

Day Eight: How Does Fear Alter My Perception of My Personal Worth or Value?

Welcome to day eight of your journey to realizing your identity, purpose, and vision to access your own Wealth Success Chamber! Congratulations! You have successfully completed the first seven days of your personalized life coaching boot camp. Let's take a moment to reflect.

How are you feeling? What's on your mind? How would you describe the past seven days in twenty words or less?

As promised, you may be feeling the intensity of the emotional learning that has been required, but I applaud you for stepping up to the plate. Not only did you prove to yourself that you are capable of accomplishing what you set your mind to do but you have also demonstrated your tenacity to achieve success while doing so. Let me remind you today that you were born to be remarkable, not insignificant. Failure is a mind-set. Mediocrity is a choice. Procrastination is fatal. Excellence is attainable. Greater success is imminent. Your life is extraordinarily valuable, has meaning, and is needed.

Today we will dive into the principle of understanding your value and worth as an individual. Oftentimes, we look for others to esteem us or determine what our value is, rather than assuming a position of authority in our own lives and informing others of our value. Why is that? Who told us what we could or couldn't have? What we did or didn't deserve? What we would or wouldn't achieve? Who planted the seeds of doubt and fear and diminished our dreams? When did our ideas become fairy-tale stories that we thought we could only read about in books or watch for entertainment in movies? Where in our lives did success become such a fleeting fantasy? Take a few moments and really reflect on the questions above. These are not rhetorical questions but questions that we need to answer to ourselves, if no one else.

Please use the space below to provide your response. No matter how long it takes, take the time needed to determine the answers; FYI, "I don't know" is not an appropriate response. Ouch!

The reason it is important to understand where we lost hope in ourselves is that we will need to rebuild and restore hope from that place in the past for the sake of our future. For some, the inadequacy began at school with being chosen last for games during gym classes, having to sit alone in the cafeteria for lunch, or being bullied or made fun of. For some, the inadequacy began in childhood with an absent parent. For some, the rejection continued with not having a date for school functions or dances and not understanding why. For others, this cycle of rejection and inadequacy continued to grow with breakups of romantic relationships, divorces, or even struggles with infertility or miscarriages. These feelings of unworthiness, rejection, and abandonment, when they are not dealt with, snowball into a completely catastrophic monster of fear.

Fear is a deadly weapon that will paralyze you and prevent you from any type of progress if you allow it to rule your life. The very thought of things that are frightening to us sometimes will take our very breath away. Isn't that interesting?

Even more interesting is understanding that fear disguises itself in many forms: negativity, anxiety, pride, arrogance, mediocrity, low/no expectations, hopelessness, complacency, withdrawnness, false identity, and indecisiveness are just a few.

Do you recognize any of these forms of fear taking residence and creating a home in your life? Often, fear will fall into three categories based on the situations in our lives: fear of staying, fear of leaving, and fear of the unknown. Another way to describe these categories is fear of things remaining the same, fear of things changing, and fear of the future. The reality is that the emotion of fear invokes the idea that something is either a threat or danger to us even if that threat or danger is imaginary and does not actually exist. Wow! In essence, some of the things we are fearful of were completely imagined and were never designed to play a part in our lives as a reality.

When I was a child, my father often spoke of Murphy's law: "What can go wrong will go wrong." Whenever he referenced this "law," he and I would share many laughs and stories where it truly appeared to be the reality of what occurred. It became one of the staples of our jokes until I became old enough to reference it myself. Though we used this "law" in humor, if I had not been careful and had truly internalized it as a universal law in my life, I would have been giving fear a home in my life.

There is a major difference between fear of the unknown and proper planning. Proper planning is a critical principle for responsible living. Don't confuse proper planning and being responsible with experiencing fear and making decisions based on that fear. For example, life insurance is a decision of responsibility, while not pursuing the career of your choice or starting your dream business may be a decision of fear. Please note that timing is certainly a critical element that must be carefully evaluated before making any major life changes that will affect your family and livelihood. However, always remember that, if you are not moving forward, you are falling behind. Yikes!

Just think about the very concept of time. Time is constant, moving forward with every second of the day. We know that there are twenty-four hours in a day and that we don't have the ability to freeze time the way we can hit the pause button on movies or live TV shows with today's technology.

Look at your life. How has fear stolen valuable time from your pursuit of greatness and success? The bad news is that fear may have stolen years of valuable time from our lives. The great news is that now, as we are taking responsibility for our decision to allow fear to reside in our emotions and consequently drive our choices, we also have the power to change.

We have both the authority and ability to eradicate it from our emotions and decisions so that it can no longer continue robbing our gifts from God: life and precious time. Furthermore, when we come out of agreement with allowing fear to govern our emotions and choices, we create the space for our value to be recognized and revealed both to ourselves and to the world.

In the exercise below, please list ten goals that you want to accomplish in your lifetime and when and why you want to accomplish them. Before you begin this exercise, please take a moment and quiet your mind. You must remove every limitation and barrier in your mind that says you could or would never be able to accomplish this or that. As a reminder, accessing your Wealth Success Chamber includes being able to live a life of wealth and success holistically by taking the action to identify and establish clarity with your personal success goals.

Please complete the exercise 100 percent and remember, your responses regarding when and why are just as important as the goals themselves. There is no goal is silly, too big, too hard, or even impossible. Remember, every goal is attainable with the right mind-set, plan, and actions. A key fundamental principle of having the right mind-set is ensuring that your spiritual mind lines up with the Holy Bible.

| Goals | When | Why |
| 2. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 3. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 4. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 5. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 6. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 7. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 8. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 9. _____     | _____       | _____      |
| 10. _____    | _____       | _____      |

In the exercise below, please list your current and desired career occupations and income, both hourly and annually. Remember, your desired income reflects your value, worth, and results that are delivered by you, not your current paycheck. This amount mirrors your education, experience, work ethic, creativity, and ability to make an impact. This amount should be a measurement of the results you achieve for the company. I ran across great wisdom in a very profound statement: “Someone’s lack of resources doesn’t define or determine my value.” In the same manner, someone’s lack of resources doesn’t determine your value. Keep that in mind as you fill in your desired wage and salary.

I love, respect, and appreciate this about who I am: _____

Current Occupation _____
Current Hourly Wage $ _____/hour
Current Annual Salary $ _____/year
Desired Occupation _____
Desired Hourly Wage $ _____/hour
Desired Annual Salary $ _____/year

Today's lesson was not meant to suggest that you will never experience fear of anything. We all fear something at some point. The purpose of today's lesson is to create a more definite awareness of your value and worth in your own eyes and to dismantle the mind-set of fear continuing to hide and reside in your thoughts and decisions. We must conquer fear with action and progress. Progress is the enemy of and antidote for fear. Stagnation, a lack of forward motion, is the drug that keeps fear alive. The reality is that, if we don't begin to look at our dreams in life as goals with expected dates of accomplishment and begin preparing plans and specific actions, we will never see progress. Whatever you set out to do, no matter how big the goal is, no matter how afraid you may be feeling, do it anyway. Move forward afraid if you need to; just start moving forward so you don't continue falling behind.

Day Eight Declaration

I, _____ (insert full name here), am excited about my journey to realizing my identity, purpose, and vision by unlocking the gift of love inside me. I am grateful for the opportunity to change the course of my life from governing my decisions from a place of fear to a position of fearlessness. I come out of agreement with fear, negativity, anxiety, complacency, stagnation, indecisiveness, and doubt. I shake loose the effects of fear in my life. I embrace the confidence and certainty of my value and greatness inside. I no longer embrace self pity but take full responsibility for my choices that brought me where I am currently in life. I come into agreement with progress and forward movement toward my destined life of success that lies ahead. I am my own success story! I am accessing my Wealth Success Chamber!

I love, respect, and appreciate this about who I am: _____
